- The primary aim is to resolve issues and to restore, as far as is practicable, the relationships of the parties involved rather than to apportion blame;
- In investigating and dealing with bullying, the teacher will exercise professional judgement to determine whether bullying has occurred and how best the situation might be resolved;
- Reports, including anonymous reports of bullying will be investigated and dealt with appropriately.
- Non-teaching staff are encouraged to report incidents of bullying behaviour witnessed by them to the relevant teacher;
- Pupils who observe incidents of bullying behaviour should be encouraged to discuss them with teachers.
- Parents and pupils are required to co-operate with any investigation and assist the school in resolving any issues and restoring, as far as is practicable, the relationships of the parties involved as quickly as possible;

- Teachers will take a calm, problem-solving approach when dealing with incidents of alleged bullying behaviour reported by pupils, staff or parents;
- Interviews will be conducted with sensitivity and with due regard to the rights of all pupils concerned;

At the group meeting, each member may be asked for his/her account of what happened to ensure that everyone in the group is clear about each other's statements;*
- Each member of a group will be supported through possible pressures from the other members of the group after an interview;
- In cases where it has been determined by the relevant teacher that bullying behaviour has occurred, the parents of the parties involved will be contacted at an early stage to inform them of the matter and explain the actions being taken (by reference to the school policy)
- Where the relevant teacher has determined that a pupil has been engaged in bullying behaviour, it should be made clear to him/her how he/she is in breach of the school's anti-bullying policy and efforts should be made to try to get him to see the situation from the perspective of the pupil being bullied;
- Any disciplinary sanctions are a private matter between the pupil being disciplined, his parents and the school and are dealt with in accordance with the schools behaviour policy;
- Follow-up meetings with the relevant parties involved may be arranged separately with a view to possibly bringing them together at a later date if the pupil who has been bullied is ready and agreeable.
- In cases where the relevant teacher considers that the bullying behaviour has not been adequately and appropriately addressed within 20 schooldays after he/she has determined that bullying behaviour has occurred, it must be recorded by the relevant teacher in the appropriate recording template;

In determining whether a bullying case has been adequately and appropriately addressed the relevant teacher will, as part of his/her professional judgement, take the following factors into account;

- a) Whether the bullying behaviour has ceased;
- b) Whether any issues between the parties have been resolved as far as is practicable;
- c) Whether the relationships between the parties have been restored as far as is practicable; and
- d) Any feedback received from the parties involved, their parents or the school Principal or Deputy Principal;

In the event that a parent has exhausted the school's complaints procedures and is still not satisfied, the school will advise the parents of their right to make a complaint to the Ombudsman for children.

The Children First National Guidance for the Protection and Welfare of Children 2011 (Children First) and the Child Protection Procedures for Primary and Post-Primary Schools provide that in situations where "the incident is serious and where the behaviour is regarded as potentially abusive, the school must consult the HSE Children and Family Social Services with a view to drawing up an appropriate response, such as a management plan".

Serious instances of bullying behaviour will in accordance with the Children First and The Child Protection Procedures for Primary and Post-Primary Schools, be referred to the HSE Children and Family Services and/or Gardaí as appropriate.
